

The New York Collection

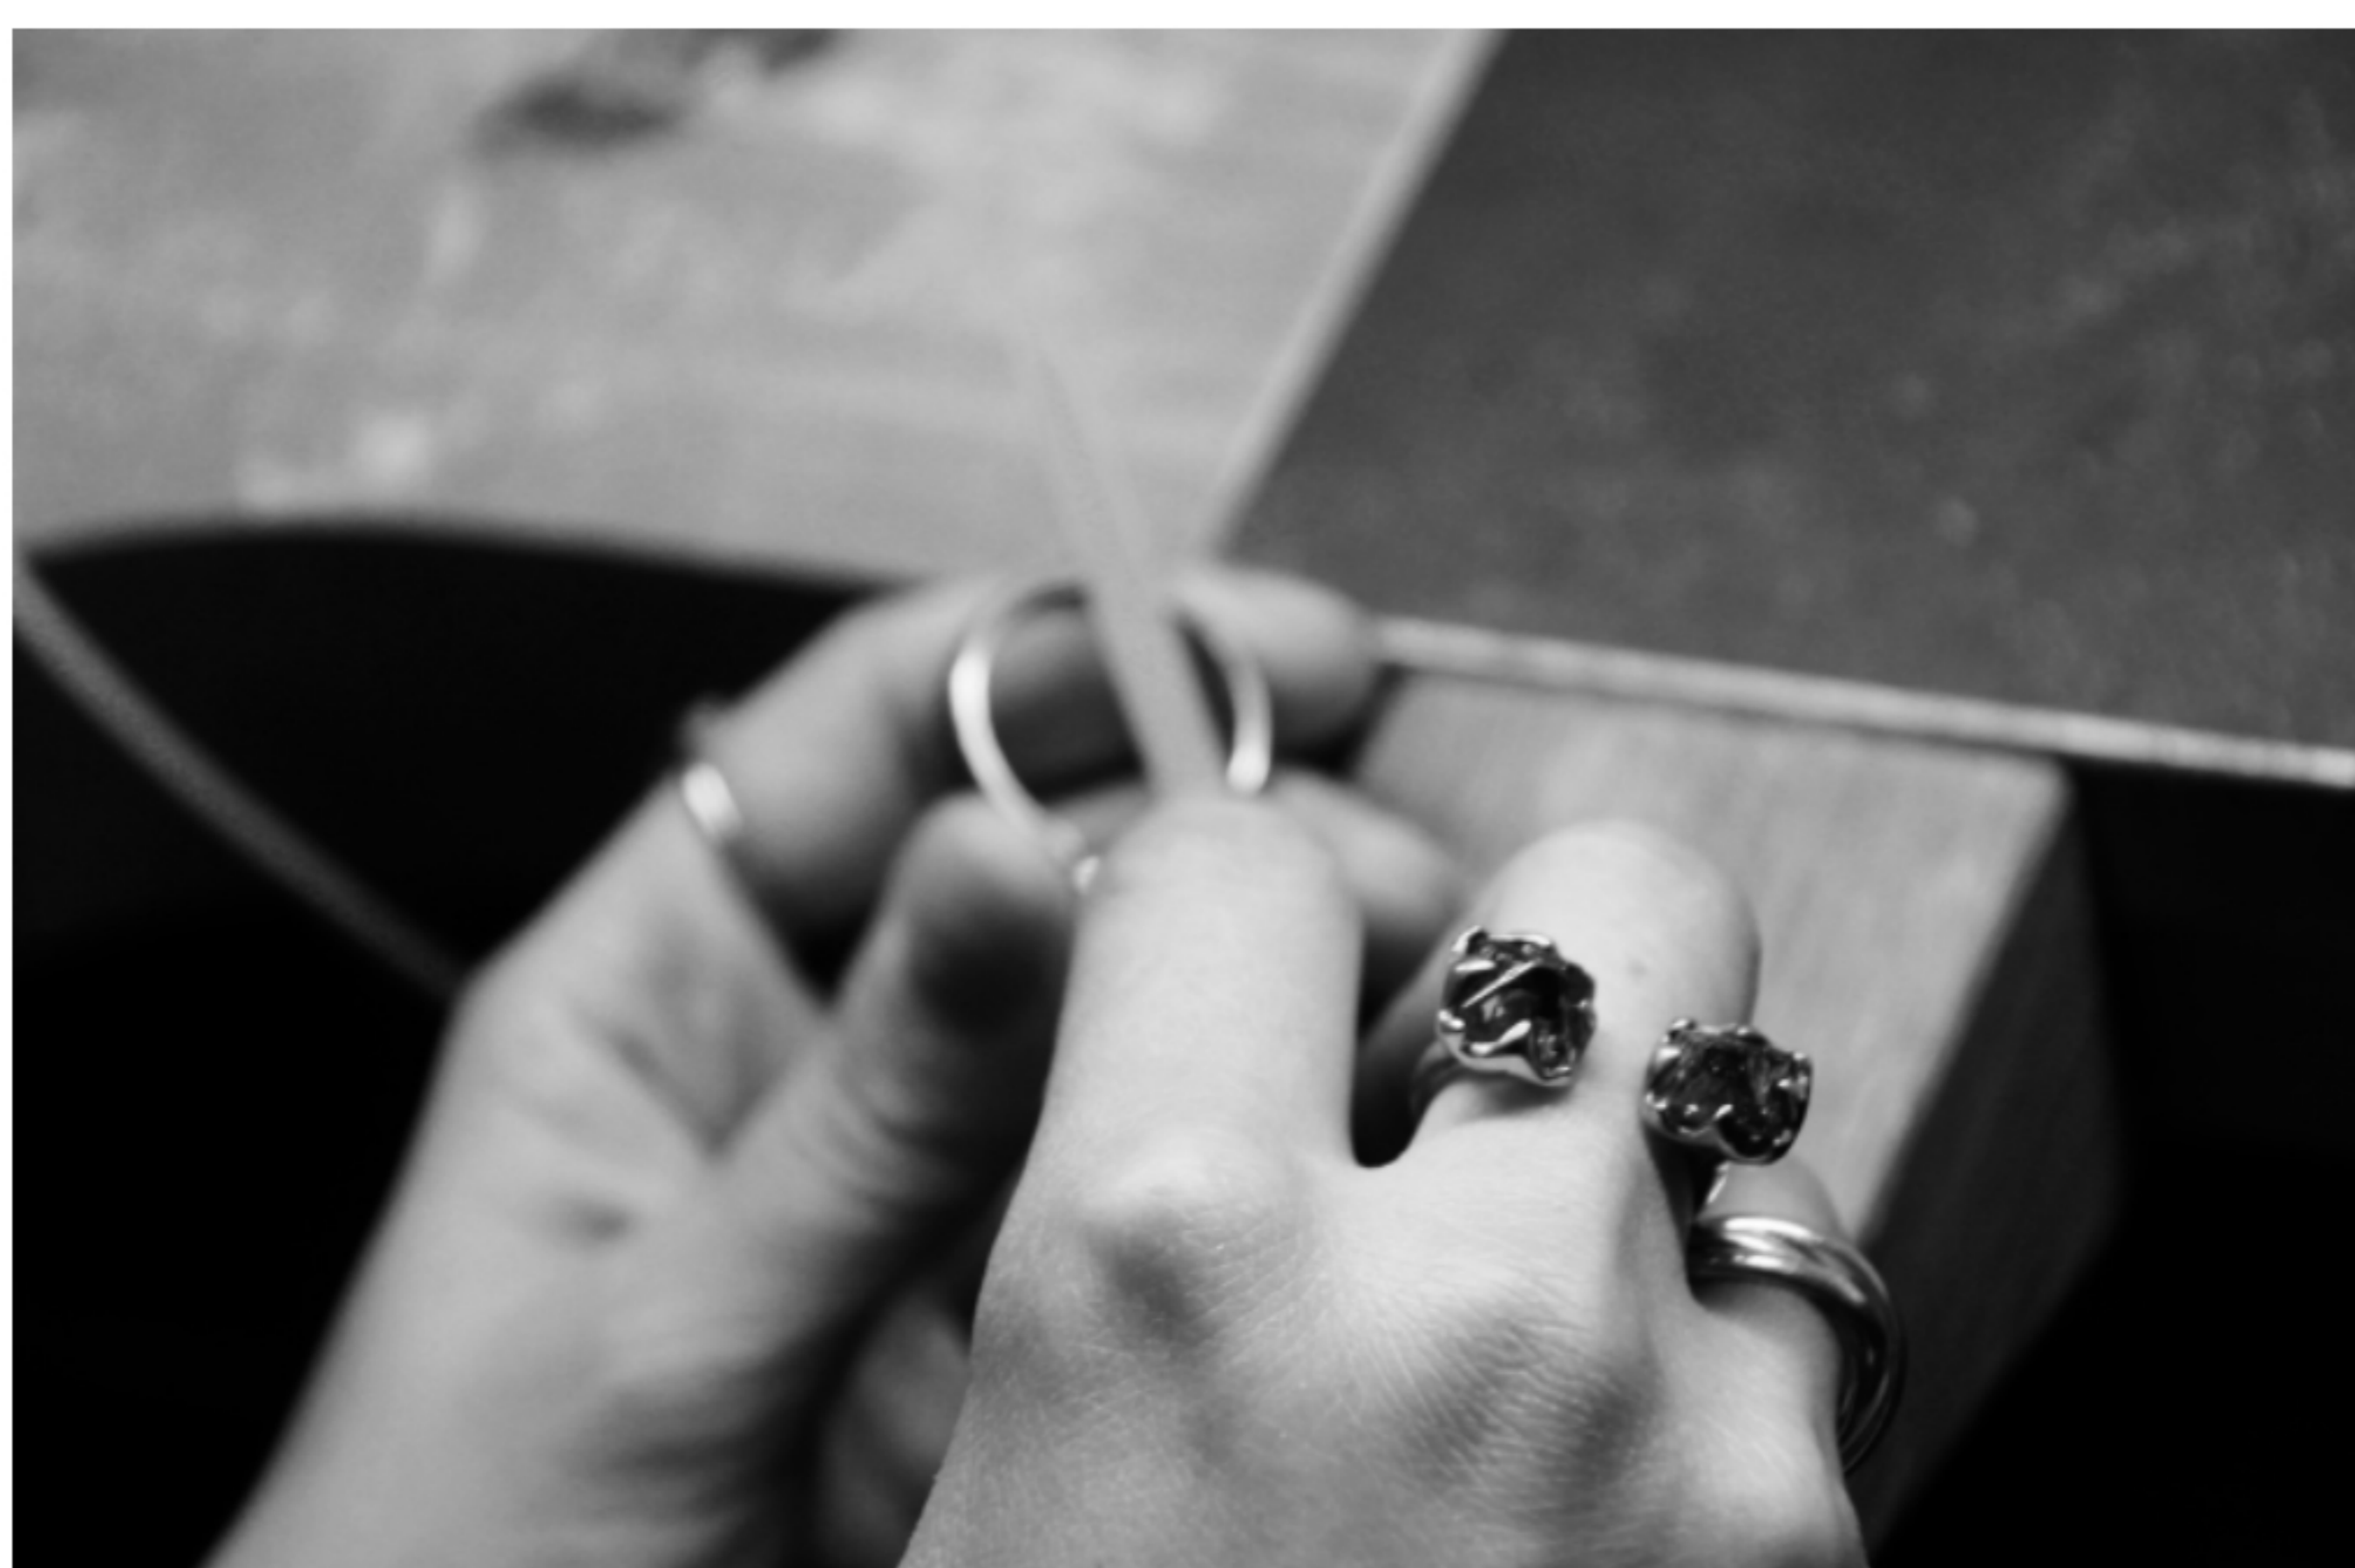

By Anna J. Martinez

Born in the underground clubs of New York City in the 90's, the Glitter Goth style encapsulates both the glamour and the grit of the Big Apple. The designers, models and scene-sters that created this movement have remained icons for the past three decades, and their influences have again permeated the fashion world. Rampant on the Fall/Winter 2015 runways, designers like Alexander Wang, Givenchy and Lanvin incorporated this signature edgy style in their collections.

It feels very timely that we should be launching the Cassandra Nicholson Jewelry brand this season with one of our collections created as a direct nod to this returning trend. Simultaneously an homage to old New York Art Deco architecture and the ever-evolving designs of the modern era, the Cassandra Nicholson New York Collection is a celebration of this glamour and grit that defines this city. Incorporating the club kid ethos, a bit of a glam-rocker spirit, and the fringe culture vibe that informs and feeds the signature New York City culture, these pieces are as bold as they are perfect for everyday wear. Pair them with your favorite, classic leather jacket or one of this season's new fashion items.

As with all Cassandra Nicholson jewelry, the pieces in the New York Collection are considered talismans, gaining strength and character through the owner's life voyage, and providing a comforting weight when held in one's hand. Let these stunning pieces be your armor as you take the city (and the world) by storm.
